WE NOMINATE

David Hugh Jones, a distinguished leader in the field of modern church music, who this Sunday—five days after conducting a rehearsal in Princeton Seminary's Miller Chapel—will be helping direct a worship service in a U.S. Army Chapel somewhere in the Far East. And for the next two months, whether Jones and the 23-voice Seminary Choir are in Korea or Japan, the routine will be the same. There will be two or three, and possibly four, performances every day, including appearances before military units of any size and stopovers for native churches, schools, and orphanages. In fact, the Choir, as has been the case ever since it was founded 18 years ago, will sing wherever time permits.

The current tour, which is being made upon the invitation of the U.S. Far Eastern Command, is the climax of a success story written in the best of American traditions and also the eighth summer swing for an organization that has sung in the 48 States, all of the Canadian Provinces, Alaska, Cuba and Mexico. So that the bid from the Armed Forces could be accepted, the Choir cancelled 153 summer engagements and its members, many of whom must count upon holiday earnings in order to continue their studies, unanimously agreed to waive the three dollars per-day expenses ordinarily extended when the Choir is on the road between terms.

It was in 1934 that Jones, now 53, a native of Jackson, Ohio, and member of the Westminster Choir College Faculty from its founding in 1926 until 1951, agreed to direct the Seminary's Choir on a part-time basis. The following spring a Philadelphia church asked the Choir to sing and such was beginning of a new chapter in the Seminary's 150-year history. Since 1937 the Choir has sung in at least three churches each Sunday of the academic year and has appeared some 2,000 times in over 1,000 churches, schools, hospitals and military installations. No specific financial guarantee has ever been required, inasmuch as the Choir depends entirely upon freewill offerings and is "opposed to the sale of tickets."

Jones, a Fellow of the American Guild of Organists and in 1941 honored by Washington and Jefferson College with the degree of Doctor of Music, is widely known as a composer whose works are frequently sung by college and professional choirs. Of Welsh descent and an admirer of a grandfather who in his Ohio home maintained 11 pianos and organs for benefit and guidance of eight music-loving children, Jones is currently editing the Pan-Presbyterian and Reformed Church Hymnal, sponsored by the separate branches of the Presbyterian Church and scheduled for publication within the year.

For knowing that music is a language which men everywhere can understand; for enabling future leaders in the Christian ministry to obtain a wide view of their Church in action; for helping a great institution symbolize its devotion to the "music of eternity"; he is the Editors' nominee for "Going Back." From the 1903 Maxwell (an early 20th century car) to 1943's galleon (an early 15th century ship), the 1953 reunion parade promised to be bigger and better and more colorful than ever. To a Princeton man's way of thinking, each reunion could only be better than the last, and this weekend some 5,000 of them were converging on "the best old place of all." With the grin of a carefree sophomore, the most staid and dignified of their number would gladly admit to the charge that "no other college in the U. S. holds reunions on the scale that they do at Princeton."

Representatives of more than 60 classes will be in the line of march Saturday as the parade winds its gay way through the campus, down Prospect Street and into University Field. Oldest among them will be James Hughes of Bellefonte, Pa., who received his diploma with the Class of 1885—some 68 Junes ago.

The 50-year class, 1903, expects better than 100 of its 138 living members back for their "golden reunion." Such a percentage of close to 80% is high but not unusual for those who need little or no excuse to travel thousands of miles for these traditional June gatherings. This year, Princetonians are coming from as far away as California, England, Europe and South America.

Music of all varieties will be provided by some 25 bands as colorfully costumed as the alumni. Princeton High School's own band will lead the class of 1913, while the Class of '38 will be paced by the high-stepping 85-piece Perth Amboy Drum and Bugle Corps, here last July for the Independence Day celebration. Thirty-eight will stand out in the familiar two-way Sherlock Holmes hats and with 500 orange and black balloons; '43's accessories will include the pirate galleon as a float, mounted with orange and black cannon.

But if a carefree and frivolous atmosphere is frequently apparent, reunions will have their more serious side as well. A number of the older classes plan a "reunion curriculum," featuring faculty-alumni forums on such subjects as "Russia and the Middle East," "The Humanities and Business" and "The United States, 1953: Strength and Weaknesses."

Matching this post-war development is a trend away from the traditional "stag weekend" and toward a "family day" on Saturdays. Many class headquarters will serve wives and children luncheon before the Yale baseball game and will hold "open house" at the end of the afternoon.

Other events of the commencement program will include a meeting of the National Alumni Association at noon Sunday; the annual

Service of Remembrance in the Chapel Sunday at 3; Class Day exercises for 640 seniors on Monday; and the University's 206th commencement Tuesday morning in front of picturesque Nassau Hall.

Bank Shortage Charged. Harry H. Kerr, Jr., 53, was arrested by FBI agents Monday at his home at 178 Moore Street on a charge of embezzling funds of the First National Bank, where he is head teller and securities clerk. After a hearing in Trenton, Mr. Kerr was released on his own recognizance to await federal grand jury action.

According to investigators, the alleged irregularities were uncovered during a routine audit of bank funds and occurred in the period from September 1952 until last month. John P. Poe, president of the First National, explained that when the apparent shortages came to light they were reported as required by law to supervisory authorities, who investigated and filed the complaint.

Mr. Poe said that a shortage of $6,000 apparently exists. Mr. Kerr will be required to give an explanation to the federal grand jury or he will face indictment. The complaint accuses him of withholding funds entrusted to him for the purchase of U. S. bonds, and the investigators charged that there was a time lag in filling securities orders placed with the defendant.

Mr. Kerr, who has been employed at the First National Bank for 32 years, denied at the preliminary hearing that he had converted any bank funds for his own use and insisted that there is no actual shortage in his accounts.

Action in Borough Hall. The mayor and council made news in this fashion at Tuesday's monthly meeting:

- Introduced an ordinance calling for municipal acquisition of three off-street parking lots and readied plans to proceed with condemnation proceedings as a last resort. Space for 182 cars is sought—between Nassau and William Streets; between Nassau and Park; and between Nassau and Spring, east of Tulane. Estimated cost: $206,000, with $196,000 to be raised in a bond issue and $10,000 from the capital improvement fund. Public hearing: Tuesday, June 23, 8 p. m.
- Introduced another ordinance calling for the widening of Alexander Street in the vicinity of the Seminary campus. Estimated cost: $6,400.
- Reported that steps will probably be completed this summer for municipal acquisition of a 17-acre tract on the former Marquand estate, the land to fit into the borough's long-range recreational program. Mayor Sturges called it a "$50,000-plus gift from generous property owners at a cost to the borough of a loss of some $2,000 in rateables, plus nominal upkeep."
- Set Friday, June 26, as the date for the annual inspection of the Princeton Fire Department by the governing body at a site to be determined.

Kafes Convicted. After seven hours and 20 minutes of deliberation, a Federal jury last week found former State Senator Richard J. Kafes guilty on seven counts of income tax evasion. The government had charged that Kafes failed to pay $64,013 in taxes in the period 1946-50.

The maximum sentence facing Kafes under Federal law is 27 years in a penitentiary and a $70,000 fine, but the disposition is expected to be far less severe. Kafes, who did not deny he failed to pay but referred to the non-payments as "derelictions" and "indifference" is expected to appeal to a higher court after he is sentenced.

Postmen and Cowboys. Ceremonies marking the inauguration of helicopter air mail service had to share the spotlight with Western film star Tim Holt, at least in the eyes of the score or more of youngsters in the crowd of 100 onlookers at Monday's goings-on.

Sighted at 2:26 p.m. as it passed over RCA's Sarnoff Research Laboratories, the 'copter circled the field once and then landed neatly

It's New to Us

A New Place to Shop. Over in Middlebush, about five lovely rural miles beyond Franklin Park, there is the beginning of a new little "shopping center." It is the work of two Princetonians — lumberman Sam Pillsbury and his architect, William Walker of Kassler Associates.

Mr. Pillsbury has a building materials center which he calls "The Country Yard With the City Service." His stock includes millwork, rough lumber, drain tile, cedar posts and flagstones, some of it stored in a century-old barn put together with pegs.

When he moved to his lumber-yard last winter, Mr. Pillsbury found an old postoffice and general store combination right next door. The building was run down, but he got Mr. Walker to look over its possibilities. The result of Mr. Walker's work at the drawing board is a remodeled store with old-fashioned country front porch, built after some old drawings of the building that Mr. Pillsbury unearthed.

Now there's a postoffice on one side and on the other, the Betsy Ross Sweet Shop—sodas, ice cream, magazines and church social posters in the window.

Next to the Sweet Shop is a modern building designed by Mr. Walker to harmonize with the old one. The new building will be a grocery and meat market for the whole Middlebush area. Opening date, this Thursday, June 11.

Mr. Pillsbury's lumber-yard, already flourishing, is a home-building center than can take a house from the first gleam in your eye right down to the key in your lock. Mr. Pillsbury will show you his big book of house plans, or he will steer you to architects that specialize in custom-built houses.

He is also equipped to provide financing through FHA, VA and local banks. Not only that, but he will help you find a lot to put your house on.

Lumber-yard, market and store are lined up along the railroad, right at the edge of Middlebush. Mr. Pillsbury's yard has some 1,500 feet along the railroad with its own five-car siding. And about five acres to grow in, besides.

No Hot Foot. Soft glove leather has been used to fashion a pair of "Floaters" — light-weight men's casual shoes, now at Brophy's, 78 Nassau. These shoes, so pliable they can almost be squeezed into a ball with one hand, are partially lined with leather and soled with a cushiony platform sole. Four holes and a lace hold them on.

Our favorite is the one in a palomino gold leather that would weather beautifully over the years. The shoe is completely washable, by the way—a cloth and mild soap will keep it presentable clear through Labor Day.

Another style is a combination of suede and smooth leather. Copper-colored suede forms the upper, with a leather binding between sole and upper. "Floaters" are $10.50 at Brophy's.

Keep a Cool Head. Not hard to do with straw jockey caps from Clayton's, 17 Palmer Square West. Variation on the jockey theme is a Sherlock Holmes hat of pique and natural Madagascar straw. (All straw, if you like.) Besides the Baker Street and Hinleah models there are hats with brims all the way around, narrow as a hem.

Some hats are a combination of gingham check and straw, others are plain linen like the navy in the small circle marked off by waste gravel behind the RCA buildings and officially dubbed the Princeton Heliport.

Marshall K. Skadden, counsel for New York Airways, Inc. which operates the new route as well as four others, alighted and handed Postmaster Charles F. Murray a small yellow bag containing air mail letters with commemorative cachets. Princeton postmen returned the compliment with a load of some 3,600 air mail pieces.

The picture-taking spree began with amateurs and professionals snapping the Sikorsky S-55 helicopter, the pilots, Mayor Sturges, Township Committeeman Bertrand L. Cahill Jr., Dr. Elmer Engstrom and other RCA officials, and finally each other. Holt, who was decked out with twin six-shooters and ten-gallon hat was snapped with everyone else as part of a publicity venture for the series of TV shorts he is making with the Princeton Film Center.

The helicopter's pilots, Capt. Calvin Alston and Capt. Leslie Carter, explained that helicopter air mail service will expand to new routes next month and that limited passenger service to and from New York may be realized by the end of the year. After a few more pictures, they hucked off of the circle and winged the plane to its next stop, New Brunswick.

Commencement Activities. Princeton Theological Seminary conferred 129 degrees Tuesday morning at its 145th annual commencement in the University Chapel. Dr. Samuel M. Shoemaker, rector of Calvary Episcopal Church of Pittsburgh, addressed the graduating class.

Announcement was made of the promotion to Professor of Homiletics of Dr. Edward H. Roberts, Dean of the Seminary. Dr. Donald Macleod was given the rank of Associate Professor of Homiletics; the Rev. Wilbert J. Beeners was named Associate Professor of Speech; and the Rev. Raymond L. Strong was made instructor in the New Testament Department.

The retirement of Dr. Donald Wheeler, head of the Department of Speech, was also announced. He has held that position since 1924.

The seminary has also reported that it hopes to break ground within a year for the Robert E. Speer Library, a $1,500,000 building named for the late president of its board of trustees. Its new Campus Center, completed at a cost of some $900,000, was finished during the past academic year.

Dr. Charles R. Erdman of Library Place was re-elected treasurer of the seminary's alumni association. He has filled this position for the past two decades.

Princeton High School will award some 218 diplomas at its graduation exercises Wednesday night at 8 in McCarter Theatre. The annual convocation service, at which the Rev. Lester Clee, well-known clergyman from Essex County, will be the speaker, will take place Monday morning at 8:20 in the University Chapel.

"One World, Indivisible" is the theme for the commencement program. It has been prepared by Susan Sheldrick, Barbara Randall, Polly Fleming, Eleanor Gullickson, James Kuist, Charlotte Pate and Suzanne Rudy. Taking parts in the dramatic presentation will be Carol Search, Patricia Brandon, Barbara Randall, Louis Frohling, Polly Fleming, James Kuist, Richard Buxton, Daniel Overmeyer and George Amabile.

HELICOPTERS MAKE IT AIR MAIL ALL THE WAY

Postmaster Charles F. Murray (center) receives Princeton's first helicopter air mail delivery from Capt. Leslie Carter, while driver Elwood Blydenburgh prepares to load part of the 3,600 outgoing missives aboard the rotary-propelled carrier. For further details of the inauguration of the new service, see Topics of the Town.

Country Day. Grenville Cuyler won the Headmaster's Cup for leadership based on character at the Princeton Country Day School's 29th annual commencement exercises Monday night. The Faculty Cup, for "manhood, learning, gentleness" went to Peter B. Cook.

Norman K. Dorf won the cup presented to the best all-around athlete, while Michael McKenzie won both the Upper School Scholarship and Alumni Cups. Daniel Quick won the Lower School Scholarship Cup; John F. Kerney, Jr.,

Purchasing a New Car

The books say that ads should be short.

Ads should have pictures.

This ad is different.

In exchange for a few minutes of your reading time, it will give you valuable information. So if you intend to invest in a new car soon, it will be to your advantage to continue reading.

UNBIASED REPORTS ON 1953 CARS are now available. One of the most reliable, "Consumer Reports," prepared by an organization with no special interests, nor advertising pressure, is well worth the 35-cent investment at the newsstand. (They buy their own cars for testing purposes, at retail).

The May issue will be an eye-opener to you as an automobile owner if you have never read such a survey. Without the inconvenience of shopping dealer showrooms, you can get accurate non-technical and technical information on the 1953 automotive merchandise.

You will get comparisons on makes, models, performance factors, riding qualities, power steering, automatic transmissions, trade-in values and many other factors.

Such information has dollars-and-cents value when you go to buy your new car.

A FEW HIGHLIGHTS: One phase of the report is a study on "owner loyalty." In other words, does the car owner like his present car well enough to buy the same make again? DeSoto V-8 stands at the top of the list! Some of the standings in this list will astound you.

WHEN IT COMES TO RATING CARS BY PRICE CLASS, the DeSoto V-8 Fire Dome again takes top rating. The comments and reasons for the ratings of the automobiles in this class will open the eyes of many prospective buyers.

WE URGE EVERY CAR OWNER to check reports such as this before buying any car.

Read the unbiased accounts of the good and bad points of the new cars. Then we invite every prospective buyer of a new automobile to come in and drive the new 1953 DeSoto Fire Dome V-8.

A few minutes at the wheel, added to the words of experts, will convince you that the DE SOTO is the best in its class—and the 1953 car for you.

WHY DON'T YOU join the thousands of owners who continue to buy DE SOTO year after year?

Obituaries

Jacques Peter (Jack) Honore, for decades a town and campus landmark, was found dead of carbon monoxide in his car Sunday, June 7. He was 69 years old. Services were held Wednesday at the Kimble Funeral Home and interment followed in Princeton Cemetery.

Mr. Honore had been missing from his home at 24 Madison Street since Friday. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Beatrice M. Honore; a son, Jack Jr. of Princeton; a daughter, and three brothers.

A native of Denmark, Mr. Honore had lived here since 1915. He established himself as virtually a University institution with his barber shop and "Oleaqua," the hair tonic which he made, patented and shipped all over the world to Princeton graduates and others. News stories of his temporary disappearance to the Far West in the 1930's were printed in newspapers all over the country.

Close to 100 girls from the Middle Atlantic area are expected to attend the week-long session. In addition to regular meetings and activities, the group will hold a service in the University Chapel on Sunday, June 21 which will be open to the public. The conference choir will sing and Rev. Bruce Morgan of Princeton will be the speaker.

QUAKERS QUELLED

Dick Emery, ace Princeton pitcher, blew Penn out of the Eastern League race with successive 1-0 shutouts.

Sports in Princeton

Emery Takes a Big One. A pitcher who gives two hits in a championship playoff game can normally expect to win a major victory. If he is working against another pitcher who has beaten him, 1-0, earlier in the season, success under the circumstances would be doubly sweet.

But Pennsylvania's Karl Hey was just short of the mark on Tuesday afternoon because his control wasn't quite as sharp as Dick Emery's and his support was not a match for the fielding the Tiger hurler got. With one out in the sixth, Hey nicked Captain Joe Golden with an inside pitch.

For Other Sports

Two successive boots of simple ground balls followed, each by Penn third baseman Dale Summerbell. One put Golden on second and the other sent him across the plate with a perfect hook slide for the only run of the day.

In winning again by a 1-0 count, Emery had the press box statisticians churning up figures. When the returns were all in, it was apparent that Emery has:

- Pitched 27 consecutive scoreless innings against Penn, winning this season by 3-0, 1-0 and 1-0.
- Raised his season's record to 8-2, including five shutouts.
- Compiled a season's earned run average of 1.36, and in the last 59 innings, has allowed just three earned runs. That figures out to .46.

The contest was a spine-tingler all the way, even in 85-degree heat. Penn had runners on second and third in the second round with two out, and a man on second in the third inning with one out. Each time, Emery kept the Quakers from hitting the ball out of the infield.

He was tagged sharply a few times, Johnny Easton saving him once with a backhanded catch of Hey's extra-base bid while running at full speed. But from the fourth through the ninth, only two of the visitors got to first and only one of them reached second. Emery fanned six, walked only two and during one stretch retired 15 men in order before an infield error broke the skein.

If Yale defeated Harvard at Cambridge on Wednesday, as the Elis were expected to do, Saturday's Yale-Princeton session will determine the Eastern League title, despite the fact that the Tigers have one more game in the victory column than the New Haven outfit. This stems from the fact that the Blue drew a bye in the playoffs while Princeton and Penn were assigned to knock each other off.

Emery tagged the Elis with a 5-0 shutout on May 9 but since then, they have won six in a row. Bob Davis, who holds a no-hit victory over Cornell and won over the Tigers at New Haven last week, will be the Eli hurler.

ABLE TIGER CATCHER

Eddie Stimpson's fine handling of Princeton pitchers and rifle-like arm have been a major factor in the team's record-breaking nine shutouts this season.

Based on the law of averages if nothing else, Yale is the logical pick this weekend. The Elis haven't won a commencement game on University Field since 1947.

The Nassau nine and Dick Emery will be out to lengthen that string, however. Given a few solid base hits, Emery should prevail, but these 1-0 affairs allow no margin at all.

No-Hitter. Sam Nini of the Sportsmen's Club warmed up with a two-hit shutout, facing only 24 batters as his team scored over Gallup & Robinson, 5-0, in a replay of an earlier 6-6 tie. And then last Monday he twirled the first no-hit, no-run game of the local softball season as the Sportsmen crushed the Ex-Stars, 13-0.

While Nini's feats topped the week's play, tight pitching showed up in other games. Jack Lucey of the Eagles three-hit G & R as his team scored by 4-3, and Joe Rauch of Eagles matched six-hitters with Louis Haggins of Teagues, only to see the front-running Teague's outfit win, 4-2.

In the National League, Artistic and Nassau Social continued undefeated through last week. Tom Collins of Artistic chipped in with a one-hit shutout as his team sent R.C.A. to its fourth straight defeat, 7-0.

Huck McCreedy of Nassau Social gave up only four hits while his teammates rapped out 17, including homers by Jack Sweeney and Howie Cupples, to top E.T.S., 16-3. In a free-swinging contest, National Guard topped World Federalists, 16-11.

League-leading Kings Inn continued unbeaten in four games by pounding out 19 hits and a 10-3 victory over Princeton Recreation Center. Swinnerton's Gulf Station moved into second place in the girls league with a 2-2 record by topping Peresett, 8-1, as Alice Keiunji struck out 13.

Summer Sports. Sports activity sponsored by the Playgrounds Committee will start next week. The tennis tournaments for junior boys and girls begin Monday, with entries to be made at the YMCA or through the tournament director, Ellis Willard.

Men's singles, women's singles, men's doubles and mixed doubles will follow. The "Y" will accept entries now for all these events.

Last year's champions were Richard Lanahan, junior boys; Hope Thompson, junior girls; John Gurley, men's; Miss Elinor Rosenthal, women's; John Gurley and Phil Bell, men's doubles; Mr. and Mrs. Gurley, mixed doubles.

The Community Junior Baseball League for boys 15 and under will open Monday, June 29. Registration may be made at the Y; boys who played last year and are still eligible will remain with the same team.

The L. C. Bowers entry managed by B. E. Bergesen, Jr., 1952 champions, will again participate. Other teams are the Bammans, managed by Robert Sinkler; Hook and Ladder, manager to be announced; and Thornes, managed by Wendell Beecher.

News of the Theatres

MURRAY THEATRE

Enthusiosm of Princeton summer theatre-goers will unquestionably be heightened by the University Players' announcement that four air-conditioning units were installed this week in Murray Theatre for the group's six-week season, a much-needed "first" in local summer theatric ventures.

The Players will get under way on Monday, June 22, with Tennessee William's "Rose Tattoo," which had a run of 300 performances in Cheryl Crawford's 1951 New York production. Lola D'Annunzio heads the cast and Bert Emerson, a youthful stock and TV veteran, has been assigned the male lead.

Others in the cast will include Virginia English, Philip Minor, Peggy Kalmar Allison and Ali Ghito. George Bernard Shaw's comedy "The Devil's Disciple" will be the second production, opening June 29.

Producer Charles H. Schultz and director Robert MacAllen have chosen "An Italian Straw Hat" for the only previously unfilled spot on the schedule, the fifth week of July 20-25. The production will mark the American premiere of the farce by Eugene Labiche.

McCARTER THEATRE

Pupils from the Betty Kehoe dance studios will give their annual recital next Friday evening, June 19, in McCarter Theatre. Tickets priced at $1 are available from the students, at the University Store and at the door.

"Stepping Stars Revue" is the title of the presentation which will have a vaudeville-musical comedy theme. Minstrel Jimmy Hopkins will take the leading part, supported by Lois Ellis, Cynthia Day and James Kuist, who were featured in the recent "Carousel" at the high school.

The production will include a tap number by advanced students, who will be costumed in materials which glow in the dark. A "Ballet in Blue" will be danced by a girls' group, and the popular three-to-five year olds will perform several numbers along with the older students.

BUCKS COUNTY PLAYHOUSE

"The Country Girl" by Clifford Odets opens next Monday at the Bucks County Playhouse across the river in New Hope as the theatre's second attraction. The comedy-drama, which won the 1950-51 Theatre Club award as the top play of the season, plays through Saturday, June 20, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday.

Meanwhile, the fabulous comedy "Mr. Roberts" is showing its great drawing power in the Bucks County production, which continues through Saturday with a matinee on the closing day. Roy Parker heads a cast composed mainly of performers from the road company of the hit by Thomas Heggen and Joshua Logan.

Odets' play about theatre people tells the story of the restoring of an alcoholic actor to stardom through the efforts of his wife and director. Two veterans of the Bucks stage will be featured, Ronald Telfer as the actor and Ruth White as the wife. The part of the director will be played by Jack Klugman, and others in the cast are Fred Herrick, David Picken and Gerianne Paphael.

LAMBERTVILLE MUSIC CIRCUS

Cole Porter's "Panama Hattie" will have its first revival since its Broadway success of more than a decade ago when it opens next stroked in white. Prices are in the $3 range.

For a little garden hat, try on an Italian straw for 79c or $1. One is squarish, woven of a shiny, angular straw. Another is plain straw accented with a red button. A third has purple raffia woven into the natural straw.

With your hat, wear a Jantzen Tee-shirt in white terry banded in navy, a red and white striped vest peeking through. Lots of girls like to look big and sloppy, so here's a man's terry shirt big as a beach towel, with short sleeves and denim collar. Indespensible mates: Jantzen shorts in Bermuda or regular length. Denims, twills and—Bermudas only—linen.

To go near the water or in the water, Jantzen suits by the rackful, and another line in dressmaker chintz if you're happier under an umbrella than under a wave.

Let's go formal for a minute. (You dry yet?) Beaded cardigan sweaters in white, pink or blue shine with crystal beads and pearls across the front yoke. For $12.95.

Even more luxurious, a white sweater with crystals and pearls on back and front yoke and down the front as well. All for $25. Now all you need is a June moon.

Mix, Match, Switch. You can do it with dishes as well as with blouses and skirts. Take "Interplay," a new translucent china by Iroquois. If you go into The Cummins Shop, 96 Nassau, you'll find two Interplay patterns, both made up of single motifs on a wide expanse of cream-colored china.

Within each place-setting are solid-color pieces, either gold or charcoal. Try a charcoal saucer with a cup in Fleur de Lis, or a gold bowl on an Arabesque plate. You can have a wonderful time switching them around. Prices are $5.95 for a five-piece place setting, $16.95 for a 16-piece starter set.

"Capistrano" dinnerware is also a mixed match. Here is a Swedish modern design, a sharply winged black bird against fruit and wheat. The ground is cream-colored and tweedy in appearance.

Hollow ware in this set is sage green, plain in color but lively in texture—a sort of attentuated monks cloth. Coffee pots, sugar bowls and casseroles have a patterned top. We liked the free-form soup and sauce dishes, like triangles with softly rounded points. (You could use that soup dish for an ashtray with no trouble at all.)

Ebonized mahogany, plain and magnificent, makes a series of round trays. Biggest is 17 inches, the smallest is 12. Use them for serving from a round cordial decanter and six glasses. Comes in two sizes.

For a Youthful Matron. Larger sizes are almost a specialty at Harris' Department Store, 32 Witherspoon. We found there a collection of cottons, most of them white with small, single flowers widely spaced to give a cool slim effect. One, for $8.95, is sleeveless with a scalloped neck and jacket. Cap sleeves, a wide collar and wing pockets give an airy look to another cotton print.

Golfers in these sizes are striped on white, or checked. Sleeveless, they have nice details like a wide belt tab that's part of a pocket, and a small price tag: $5.95.

Cotton crepe dressmaker bathing suits are stacked on Harris' shelves waiting for your $3.95. Other suits, around $5.95, are India print, or polka dot, some with plain fronts and shirring from neck to leg band. How about a salmon-colored nylon to attract salmon fishermen?

We thoroughly enjoy making photographs of babies . . . Capturing all that frisky personal-lty in portraits for the years!

Sports in Princeton

A Future With the Pros. The professional careers of two of Princeton's outstanding athletes took shape last week. Dave Sisler will report to the Louisville Colonels, top farm team of the Boston Red Sox. A $40,000 "bonus baby," Sisler is expected to finish the season in the American Association before he gets a trial with the Sox next spring. His two-year earned run average as a pitcher for the Nassau nine was 1.23.

Frank McPhee, two-time All-American end, will play football for the Chicago Cardinals next fall and will be in the all-star game in Chicago in August. He will become the first ex-Tiger to join the "play for pay" ranks since Bob Perina performed with the now-defunct New York Yankees just after the war.

For Other Sports See Page 8

Frank was married Saturday night to Jean Coughlan of Dallas in the Second Presbyterian Church. Even this had its effect on the sports pages: Best-Man "Bo" Willis was leading a rally by the North lacrosse team against the South in Baltimore, had scored three goals but had to leave midway through the third quarter to be here in time for the ceremony. The South won, 12-9.

Crimson Whitewashed. Hurling eight hitless innings, yielding a lone if solid single in the ninth before winning, 4-0, sophomore Dick Emery last Friday became one of the very few Princeton pitchers in 80-plus years of baseball to shut out Yale and Harvard in the same season. His victory was achieved on Yale Field, New Haven, in the play-off of the rained-out game scheduled here on May 2. It served to send the Orange and Black into a first-place Eastern League tie with Pennsylvania.

Emery's performance was his best of the season, as he walked only three, fanned five and allowed only two men past second both with two away. He was consistently ahead of the batters, who hit few balls solidly and got only four into the outfield.

The shutout was his fourth of the season and ranks him with Bob Wolcott as the only pitcher in the past quarter century to whitewash the Big Three opposition. He blanked Yale on May 9, 5-0.

It was a tight ball game for seven innings. Princeton's first run was shoved across in the fifth, when sophomore second baseman John Perkins drew the first of his three walks. An error on Joe Golden's hit-and-run grounder put him on second and Bill Gall's single to right brought him around.

Stuffy McInnis, Harvard coach and 65-year-old veteran of a once-great Phillies infield, paid for a willingness to inject major league policy into college ball. He dericked his starting pitcher, Bob Ward, who can hit, for a left-handed pinch hitter who didn't.

Earle Grouper, relief meunderman for the Crimson, then gave up two hits, two sacrifices and two walks that produced three Princeton runs in the eighth and broke the game wide open. Two of the Tiger tallies crossed on a pretty squeeze bunt that Herky Parke laid down to score John Easton and Ed Stimpson.

The following day, Joe Castle and Al Bryant were tagged for nine hits and two runs by Yale in a non-league affair. When Princeton could muster but five blows and a single tally off Bob Davis, the game went to the Elis to square the season's series at one apiece.

Princeton hitting continued unbelievably weak for the manner in which the team has been winning since late April. Off the starting pitchers in last weekend's two games, the Orange and Black came up with only seven safeties, and the team batting average continues below .200.

Unprecedented Victory. In 34 years of competition among New Jersey high schools for state track championships, none had ever won the title in its division (based on size of enrollment) three successive times. Last Saturday, in the 35th year of competition, Princeton High achieved this feat as it kept the Group III crown it had won in 1951 and 1952.

The victory registered by Coach Irwin Weiss' forces was complete, as they scored 43½ points, 20 more than Tenafly, their nearest competitor. In all, 31 schools were entered in this division.

Carl Brown, who accounted for 12½ points to lead the individual scoring, set a meet record when he topped the 180-yard low hurdles in 20.2 seconds. He also tied for first in the high jump and placed second in the high hurdles.

Al Terry, with two years ahead of him at PHS, won a double when he ran the 100 in 10.1 and the 220 in a fine 22 seconds, the latter a school record. Jim Varner's performance of 21 feet, 1 inch (his best) placed him second in the broad jump, while Larry Folzer-add was third in the javelin.

The meet, held under a 90-degree sun in the Rutgers Stadium, was marked by a number of outstanding schoolboy performances, some of which topped many a college mark of the past season. Among them were a 9.8 second hundred; a 220-yard dash mark of 21.7; and a pole vault height of 13 feet, ½ inch.

The Little Tigers have now finished six straight seasons unbeaten in dual competition. Their final victim (Trenton Catholic, by 66 to 51) was their 39th in a row since 1948.

During that time, they have won three straight state championships, six straight Mercer County titles, and have dominated the Central Jersey Group III meet for seven years in a row. It's quite a feat—one that is accomplished through a combination of able coaching (Weiss, Winfield Niles, and Gerald Reminger, the freshman coach), and love of the sport gained by the boys through proper guidance from the time they first enter the high school.

Bob Rosner and Bob Taylor have been elected co-captains for the 1954 season. They succeed Jim Varner and Larry Fitzgerald.

Cricket Season Ends. The Princeton Graduate Cricket Club lost its final match of the season on Poe Field Saturday, going down before the Staten Island Club, 69 to 17. J. R. Pole took five wickets for 17 runs and George Roberts three for eight in a losing cause.

The season saw a record of two victories in seven matches, two of the defeats being sustained by a very narrow margin. The club has submitted this review of the past two months' play:

"The outstanding characteristic of the side was its bowling which was at least the equal of that of any of the other clubs. Vas, Roberts, and Bhavnani were the most successful, and they were given able support by Banyard, Fensham, Pole, and Storm.

"The club's batting has been disappointing, chiefly through the lack of practice. On the whole, it has been too given to making unnecessary mistakes, and has rarely dominated the opposing bowling. Note, however, must be taken of the batting of Fensham, the captain, who has delighted us with several aggressive innings, and scored the highest aggregate total of runs.

"The fielding has been variable, a combination of brilliance and appalling errors. Undoubtedly this has reduced the effectiveness of the club's bowling. The wicket-keeping of Beatty and Elliott has been excellent; Elliott is to be especially congratulated, since this is the first season he has spent behind the stumps.

"Next season there will be a new crop of players and a new fixture list. Let us hope that the same enthusiasm will appear then as now, and that victory will fall to them more frequently."

Tuesday at the Lambertville Music Circus. The show's 1940-41 run covered 501 performances.

Victor Herbert's operetta "Sweethearts," which is marking its 40th anniversary, continues through Sunday night at the gay outdoor tent with a matinee Saturday. Jo Sullivan, Christine Mathews and Fred Harper are among the principals of the romantic old favorite.

Winkelmann Resigns. The resignation of Charles P. Winkelmann as manager of The Playhouse and the Garden theatres was accepted with regret last week by Princeton Municipal Improvement. The move was on the advice of Mr. Winkelmann's physicians and removes from the local theatre scene a veteran of 20 years service.

Richard W. Knight, who was named acting manager in March to serve while Mr. Winkelmann underwent medical treatment, will continue in the position until a successor is named. Mr. Knight has has managed the New Canaan, Conn., theatre of the Prudential circuit (to which the Princeton cinemas belong) for 13 years.

THE PLAYHOUSE

The Desert Rats (Thurs.-Sat.) is a fine military melodrama based on the successful withstanding of a 242-day German seige by Australian forces at Tobruk (North Africa) in World War II. Battle scenes, many of them official film clips, are good, as are sound performances by Richard Burton and Robert Newton. James Mason appears as Rommel again.

A Queen Is Crowned (Sun.-Tues.) is a great achievement in documentary film - making and hence, great movie-going. British technicians performed the astounding feat of collapsing the usual weeks of processing a Technicolor film and getting the prints to this country into a bare four days. But beyond this is the feat of making a beautiful and vivid documentary of the historic event.

The processions, ancient ritual and all the colorful trappings and pageantry of Elizabeth's crowning are brought to life by the camera. Commentary written by Christopher Fry and narrated by Sir Laurence Olivier aids, but does not intrude upon the majestic proceedings.

Scared Stiff (Wed.-Sat.) finds Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis immersed in something more of a story than has been their custom. It's a tried and true veteran of over 30 years on stage and screen, dealing with an heiress (Lizabeth Scott) who visits her newly-acquired haunted island off Cuba. The music department includes Carmen Miranda as well as Martin, and the Martin & Lewis laughs are as plentiful as ever.

THE GARDEN

Small Town Girl (Thurs.-Sat.), despite the title, is a lavish Technicolor musical production filled with the customary pleasant hash about the happy problems of happy people. Comedy, songs, dances, etc., from the talents of Jane Powell, Farley Granger, Ann Miller, S. Z. Sakall, etc.

The Blue Gardenia (Mon.-Tues.) runs along the lines of the average murder mystery. Newspaper sleuth (Richard Conte) keeps ahead of police, tracing circumstantial suspect (Anne Baxter), then real murderer. And all this clearly provides the romantic cue for the principals. Ann Sothern is along for laughs.

It Happens Every Thursday (Wed.-Thurs.) is the latest Hollywood version of life in a weekly newspaper. Photo contests, rainmaking shenanigans and a weekly press breakdown are some of the gimmicks, but it's mainly a pleasant little romantic comedy about the paper's proprietors, Loretta Young and John Forsythe.

City Beneath the Sea and Ma and Pa Kettle on Vacation (Fri.-Sat.) will play together, a union of the traditional deep-sea diving romantic melodrama and the traditional Kettle corn. Robert Ryan, Mala Powers and Anthony Quinn head the cast for the Technicolor affair that includes underwater earthquakes and sunken treasure disputes. Hollywood's version of hicks, Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride, are back in form with flimsy material that includes a spy chase in Paris.
